O'Conor Still Wavers

NEW YORK Sept 11—It is reported that the [illegible] deputation [illegible] did not find the [illegible] the nomination [illegible] O'Conor. It is understood he met the deputation to-day with a decided refusal at first.

Moran urged that many influential [illegible] were ready to support O'Conor and that it was his duty to accept.

O'Conor said if it could be shown that any considerable number of citizens of New York [illegible] represented he might modify his decision.

A recorded pledge, the signers to use their influence for the Louisville nominees is being circulated. When sufficient signatures are procured it will be presented to O'Conor.

Loss of the America

The Pacific M S S Co have received a special telegram confirming the report of the loss of the America at Yokohama. Part of the cargo was saved and the specie will be recovered from the wreck by divers.

The Louisville Peace Reunion

LOUISVILLE Sept 11—The city is crowded with visitors to the Peace Reunion. Trains this morning brought in hundreds among them Hon L D Campbell of Ohio ex Gov Vance of North Carolina and other prominent men. Gentlemen from all sections of the country are pouring in. The Committee conducts invited guests to steamers which convey them to the grounds about two miles above the city. About 35 000 persons were on the grounds this morning. Stands are erected in favorable places for speakers. An immense barbecue has been prepared. Thirty bullocks and one hundred and fifty sheep and fifty hogs will be barbecued. Fifty cooks are employed to prepare the food and one hundred waiters to attend the crowd on the grounds. The crowd however is not as large as anticipated. The effort made to get Greeley, failed.

Cincinnati Exposition

CINCINNATI, September 11—The Exposition was visited by 20 000 persons to-day. Heck and Fitzgerald have gone to invite Grant and Greeley to visit.

From Maine

LEWISTON September 11—The Journal publishes returns from 333 towns casting more than nine tenths of the vote of the State which gives Perham 13 990 majority. The remaining towns last year gave 184 Democratic majority.

WASHINGTON CITY

Miscellaneous

WASHINGTON Sept 11—The Department of State is in receipt of a dispatch from Geneva but declines to make its contents known in advance of the formal announcement. There is reason to believe from other sources that the amount awarded is $15 000 000. No official advices are received in regard to the sum.

The President arrived unexpectedly this morning and received visits from several heads of Departments.

The President is reported to have said since the Maine election that he is more than ever satisfied with the political situation. He also expressed satisfaction at the results as far as known of the arbitration at Geneva not so much on account of the pecuniary feature as the settlement of principles involved and their adjustment by representatives of foreign governments in their own interests and those of peace. He had seen by cable dispatches that some portions of the British press were dissatisfied. This afforded ground for congratulation at our success believing that the arbitration was conducted according to justice and law, and free from bias or prejudice.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

The Royal Trio at Berlin

BERLIN September 11—Emperor William has made the Emperor of Austria an honorary Colonel of Schleswig-Holstein regiment of Hussars and the sons of the Prince Imperial of Germany have been appointed to colonelcies in the Russian army. The meeting of the Emperors is drawing to a close. The Emperor of Austria paid a farewell visit to-day to the Czar at the Russian Embassy.

A Deluge in Spain

MADRID September 11—A great land slide occurred near Fraga Arragon on the banks of the river Cinca, which was filled with earth and rocks. The waters were forced from their course and the country around the town inundated. A bridge at that place was carried away. A barge with forty men women and children taken from flooded houses was swamped and all drowned except three. Many other lives were lost. Damage to property is very great.

From Geneva, London and Paris

GENEVA September 11—Gentlemen connected with the Board of Arbitration have gone to Berne.

LONDON September 11—The St Ledger was won by Wenlock. Prince Charles Vanderdecker was second.

A Lisbon dispatch reports the loss of the English ship Beta. No details.

PARIS September 11—Eleven of the Narbonne rioters were convicted and sentenced to terms of imprisonment of from four to fifteen months, and fined from 200 to 400 francs.

CALIFORNIA

News per the Sandwich Islands Steamer

SAN FRANCISCO Sept 12—Advices per steamer Olympia are meagre.

The British ship Adelaide arrived at Honolulu from the Navigator Islands.

United States war steamer Benicia left April [illegible] for [illegible].

The British corvette C[illegible] had captured several parties and vessels engaged in kidnapping natives of the Navigator Islands and transporting them to Sydney.

The matter of the importation of goods direct from New York overland to San Francisco thence to Honolulu having caused complaint among foreign importers who claimed that the cost of transportation to San Francisco should be added to the original cost in the assessment of duties, Hon J Mott Smith Minister of Finance of Hawaii rendered the following decision:

It appears to me however that a person purchasing goods in New York who procures there the Consul's certificate to his invoice as required by law and causes them to be forwarded thence to Honolulu may make choice of any mode of transportation that he may see fit and duties here may be levied upon the original invoice as certified. The person at the Consul's office must swear that the invoice sets forth the market value at New York, for instance the time the same were forwarded, charges thereon etc. When an invoice so certified is presented here the Collector takes that according to section five hundred and fifty as the basis on which to levy duty. In this law it can make no difference what mode or time of transportation the shipper may choose to employ after the Consular certificate has been attached.

The whaler [illegible] Jones of New Bedford touched Jarvis Island on a cruise west with 400 barrels of oil.

A vessel arrived at Honolulu having visited the wreck of the German brig [illegible] from San Francisco on Lisiansky's reef and found the vessel nearly broken up. There were boats on the island but no signs of life.

THE SUPREME COURT

[illegible]

The Court met pursuant to adjournment. Chief Justice Upton in the chair. Present same as yesterday.

On motion of W W Thayer Presley W Denny was admitted to the Bar.

J D Russell appellant vs H C Lewis respondent. Attorney for appellant Chenoweth and Burnett, Strahan and Thayer for respondent. Argument resumed, concluded and cause submitted.

William Hutton appellant vs Douglas county respondent. Attorneys for appellant Watson Kelsay and Willis and Chenoweth, and Thayer for respondent. Argument concluded and cause submitted.

Court adjourned until 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

EASTERN STATES

Heavy Rains

Arbitrators at Berne.

BERNE Switzerland, Sept 12—Gentlemen connected with the Geneva Board of Arbitration arrived here this morning. They were met at the railway station by the President and members of the Federal Council.

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO Sept 12—Advices are received per steamer Olympia from Sydney, Melbourne and Auckland.

At Sydney garroting was becoming very frequent.

Seamen belonging to that port have struck for an advance of 20 shillings per month.

The Legislative Assembly of New South Wales have voted to aid a line of mail steamers to San Francisco by a vote of 23 to 2. Should the present Webb line receive aid from Congress that service will be subsidized. If not an English line is ready to bid for the service. The maintenance of steam service has become a necessity and the growing trade is greatly commented upon.

Thirty or forty vessels have sailed from Colonial ports to the United States within the past sixty days two thirds being American vessels.

The Melbourne treasurer stated that it would not be necessary by the terms of the California mail contract for the Government to submit a resolution to the House refusing to ratify the contract as there was no intention to ask Parliament to ratify the contract of the late Government.

Mr Duffy gave notice of a question as to the intentions of the Government in reference to the mail service.

Hon A Gordon of Mauritius is to be the new Governor.

LATEST—A communication has been received from the Agent General stating that the Imperial Government has approved of the California mail contract and would grant a subsidy of £20,000.

The colliers strike at Newcastle has been compromised.

New Zealand advices are wholly unimportant.

The native chiefs appear much dissatisfied with the Imperial Government inaugurated by foreigners nominally under King Thokambau complaining among other things that the excessive issue of paper money and the expense of the Government are hurrying the kingdom into bankruptcy.

The following is a list of the passengers for San Francisco by the Great Republic: S Mayers L P Moore Geo E Rice and wife and two children R [illegible] Small and wife Miss Etta Chase John McGinnis Fred Ansell Saml Carson A Hosfich Geo Margeson A Yonnor.

The volcano Maunaloa Hawaii is again in active eruption. The spectacle is described as magnificent.

Capt Alex Amy assistant superintendent of the American Guano Company was killed by being thrown from a cart at Jarvis Island May 14th.

The Great Republic brings two hundred and fifty five Chinamen a full cargo of teas and merchandise mainly bound overland.

Yokohama dispatches of August 27 says: The Mikado has returned from a visit to the southern portion of the Empire. He arrived unexpectedly at Yokohama and took the train for Yeddo. The photograph of his Majesty has been taken and disposed of at half a dollar a piece. The Mikado visited the Satsuma Territory and owing to the rough weather was detained there ten days. Bull fights and naval engagements were the diversions the most engaged in at the forts repeating the engagement of the English at Kagoshima in 1863. Shimadz Saburo who was the cause of the English attack on Kagoshima has written a strong letter to the Mikado in which he says in this critical moment he cannot sit by and look on in indifference at passing events and although convinced that the Mikado cannot adopt his retrograde and unenlightened views and feels that a convenient occasion may never offer itself again he makes the abrupt representation apologizing for his audacity but the fact is your Majesty under the present system of government the fortunes of the country are daily declining. The Imperial line which should last forever is in danger of falling into the vice called Republicanism and he can see as clear as a mirror that Japan will eventually become a dependency of the western barbarians. He can only sigh and weep.

SAN FRANCISCO Sept 12—Leading stocks were again strong in afternoon Board.

[illegible] Dora street car conductor was accepted this afternoon on the Fair murder case jury. This makes the fourth juror obtained. Hundreds of idlers congregate around the door of the court house every time Mrs Fair's carriage is drawn up before it to see her go in or out. The police are obliged to clear the sidewalk.

The Mexican residents displayed flags at half mast in honor of the memory of Juarez. Memorial services will be held this evening at Dashaway Hall.

SAN FRANCISCO September 12—The jury in the Municipal Court case of David Mendel, indicted for felony in defrauding his employers, Wolf & Co out of some three thousand dollars worth of money and goods by false pretenses after being out only five minutes returned a verdict of guilty as charged. Mendel has missed State Prison by a mere shave over and over again within the last ten years but in spite of evidence and perjury in this case the jury convicted him.

Martin Kennedy, only seventeen years of age pleaded guilty of highway robbery and will be sentenced to the Industrial School.

The Great Republic brought quite a large invoice of Chinese girls, who were carried away in wagons as fast as delivered to the consignees.

Democrats and Liberals are having a large turnout to-night.

Sales of stocks at the morning board aggregate 6 310 shares of which 920 were Ophir, 633 Belcher [illegible] Caledonia. At the evening board, sales reached 12 360 shares, of which 2,160 were Meadow Valley.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES

SUTTER CREEK Sept 12—H F Page McKusick and others, addressed a very large Republican meeting last night.

A fire occurred last night at 2 o clock totally destroying a two story house, an adjoining store and one other building on Eureka street, also damaging other buildings seriously. The insurance was very light. A farmer named Morgan living about a mile from town seeing the flames, started across the field for town and fell into a prospect hole crushing his leg above the knee making amputation necessary and bruising himself seriously if not fatally, otherwise.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 12—The Common Council met this evening to pass upon the ordinance in regard to the Southern Pacific Railroad Co, submitting the same to the popular vote of the city on the question granting to Stanford & Co stock held by the city of Los Angeles and San Pedro railroad, postponed at the last and specially set for this session. Opposition will come from friends of the Atlantic and Pacific and the San Diego roads. A vote will be reached to-night on the ordinance.

Chief Engineer Phelps of the Southern Pacific, will commence the survey to Fort Yuma via San Bernardino and San Gorgonio Pass so that the trunk line will pass through this city from San Francisco and meet the Texas Pacific at the Colorado river.

STOCKTON Sept 12—The attendance on the third day of the Fair is unusually large—being about 4,000 persons.

A W Royston is delivering at the Pavilion an able address, and is being listened to with marked attention and frequent applause.

VISALIA, September 12—Parties from Owens River Valley report some sharp shocks of earthquake within the last few days, accompanied by heavy explosions underground. Persons residing in the foot hills twenty miles east of here have felt very perceptible shocks every night for the last two weeks. But one or two have been felt in town and they hardly perceptible.

SANTA CRUZ September 12—C B Denio and J E Benton are addressing an audience in the Grant & Wilson interest this evening.

SUTTER CREEK, September 12—Morgan, the man that broke his leg as stated in the morning dispatch died in a few minutes after his leg was amputated.

The Amador mine commenced taking out ore and started twenty stamps of the mill on Monday last.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

ADOPTED BY THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IN CONVENTION AT PHILADELPHIA JUNE 6 1872.

The Republican Party of the United States assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872 again declares its faith, appeals to its history and announces its position upon the questions before the country.

1 During the eleven years of its ascendency it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It has suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated four millions of slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity it criminally punished no man for political offences and has warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It initiated a new policy toward the Indians, the Pacific railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generously aided and successfully conducted to completion, the public lands have been freely given to actual settlers; immigration has been protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of the rights of naturalized citizens secured from European powers. In the form of National currency, it has provided for the National credit, and sustained it under the most extraordinary burdens. It has negotiated new bonds at lower rates of interest. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied. Despite the annual large reductions from the rate of taxation the public debt has been reduced during U S Grant's Presidency at the rate of $100,000,000 per year. A great financial crisis has been averted, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably settled, and the honor and power of the Nation kept in a high position throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future, and we believe that the people will not entrust the government to any party or combination of men, composed chiefly of those who chiefly have resisted every step in this beneficent progress.

2 Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and Federal legislation. Neither law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to citizens by reason of race, creed, color or previous condition of servitude.

3 The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation the enforcement of which can be safely entrusted only to the party that secured those amendments.

4 The National Government seeks to maintain an honorable peace with all nations protecting its citizens everywhere and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5 Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party zeal is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system by a law which shall abolish the evils of patronage and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position without practically creating a life tenure of office.

6 We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the National domain be set apart for free homes for the people.

7 The annual revenue, after paying current expenditures should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the public debt, and except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, be raised by duties on importations which should be adjusted to aid in securing remunerative wages to labor and to promote the industries and growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8 We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation and the widows and orphans of those who died for the country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people. We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the Government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged and who in the time of duty became disabled without regard to length of service or the cause of such discharge.

9 The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance, once a subject always a subject, having at last, through the efforts of the Republican party been abandoned and the American idea of the right of an individual to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Government, and we urge a continued and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary emigration.

10 The franking privilege ought to be abolished and way prepared for reductions in the rates of postage.

11 Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor and the Republican party recognize the duty of shaping legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital and for labor which creates capital the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12 We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an important duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation.

13 We denounce the repudiation of public debts, in any form or disguise as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of that debt and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption to specie payment.

14 The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom; their application for admission to further usefulness is received with satisfaction and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15 We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16 The Republican party proposes to respect all rights reserved by the people to themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Territorial governments. It disapproves of asserting constitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by the interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or National Government.

17 It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship-building.

18 We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U S Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory.

Caucus or No Caucus

Our correspondent Junius whose letter appears in another column, comes out very strongly in his opposition to the political caucus system. While we agree with him that as a piece of party machinery it is liable to great abuse, still we cannot admit the correctness of his position, if he means to be understood that the caucus system is inconsistent with the principles of the Republican party. The party has never by authoritative declaration or usage, made any rule or determined in any manner that its members shall or shall not go into caucus on party questions. There is no uniform practice in the Republican organization upon the subject. Precedents can be cited on both sides of the question, as Junius himself shows. It is therefore a matter in which every member of the party is free to exercise his own best judgment and go in or stay out, as he deems for the best interests of the party under the circumstances of each particular case.

It might not be impossible to put a case in which a member of a party, acting in a representative capacity, would be censurable for refusing to go into a caucus, and, on the other hand, it is easy to imagine circumstances which would render a caucus disastrous to the party. Every man who has the welfare of the party at heart will endeavor to determine the question in every case in such a manner as will best promote the peace and harmony of the entire organization, but no man's standing in the party can be affected by his honest decision of the question, whether he decides for caucus or against it. Of course, if a representative of the Republican party went into a caucus when the plain and manifest interests of the party demanded that he should remain out, or remained out when such a course was morally certain to produce disastrous consequences, his conduct would naturally give rise to the suspicion that he desired to play into the hands of the enemy. But such cases are the extremes and seldom occur. Under ordinary circumstances there is a rule of practice in the Republican party either requiring or forbidding a member to go into caucus, but if he chooses to go into caucus and participate in its proceedings, it is but expressing a plain rule of common honesty to say that he should abide by the decision there made.

The Third Candidate

It seems altogether probable that Charles O'Conor will consent to be the candidate of the straight-out Democracy for President. The number of true Democrats who still entertain hopes of reorganization of the party upon its ancient principles has proved to be far greater than the managers of the Greeley movement supposed them to be. Of course it is not expected that O'Conor will have any show for an election, but he is a fair representative of the most respectable class of the Bourbon Democracy, and his candidacy will be merely complimentary or honorary, so far as he is personally concerned, while he will be regarded by a large number of his supporters, as a suitable standard bearer for them to rally around till the auspicious movement shall come to make renewed efforts for success. Thus he will carry away from Greeley a very considerable vote, putting an effectual quietus to the last lingering hope of the already desperate [illegible] of the Greeley movement.

In a speech recently made by Congressman Golladay, of Tenn, was a reconstructed Democrat, he is reported to have given some of his reasons for supporting Greeley, in the following language:

> "Greeley, at the outset of the war was in favor of letting the 'wayward sisters depart in peace,' and afterwards went single handed and alone to meet our commissioners in Canada, to treat for peace. Not a Democrat in the nation dared to go with him, or manifest any desire to go. He was then in favor of paying the South for her slaves, and I know he is still."

We have no doubt this statement explains the willingness of a large proportion of the Southern Democracy to support Greeley. He has intentionally allowed it to be understood, if he has not directly promised, that in the event of his election, he would use the power and influence of the Presidency to secure the payment by the General Government of the value of the slaves freed by the war. It is consoling, however, to reflect that if the people of the United States do not have this rebel debt saddled upon them till Greeley is elected President they will have the use of the money for some time yet. The citizens of our common country have agreed to "clasp hands across the bloody chasm," as witness the amnesty act of the last Congress, but they have not yet consented to pay some millions of dollars to those who made the chasm for the privilege of clasping hands across it.

The people of San Francisco are still making vigorous efforts to secure the construction of a line of railway to the Mississippi Valley to compete with the Union and Central Pacific. We take the following from the San Francisco Bulletin of the 4th instant:

> "The very large and enthusiastic meeting of the friends of the California, Atlantic and Pacific Railroad, at Platt's Hall, is convincing evidence if any were needed, of the popularity of the admirable plan for competition there presented and explained. The unbought citizens of San Francisco are opposed to feeding overgrown monopolies with subsidies, and are in favor of making the city independent of their threats by subscribing to the stock of a genuine competing road across the continent. They are sick of railroad dictation in politics and business, sick of the bullying and corruption which have characterized railroad rule. Every emphatic declaration to this effect—every telling hit at the combined rings which seek to plunder the city—was received with immense applause."

The Greeley papers insist that because Henry Wilson, Republican candidate for Vice President, once received a few votes for Governor in a Know Nothing Convention he is conclusively proved to be a Know Nothing. Our lamented Baker's election to the United States Senate was secured, in part by Democratic votes, ergo he was a Democrat. That sort of reasoning will hardly be satisfactory to intelligent people. The editor of the Boston Pilot, the leading Catholic paper has taken pains to investigate the charge of Know Nothingism made against Senator Wilson and has found no sufficient evidence to sustain the charge.

Father Waller, the indefatigable friend of the Wallamet University, having got the institution out of debt, now wants a few dollars—only five hundred thousand dollars—as an endowment fund for it. Who'll give it?

There is much travel between Pumphrey's and Olympia. Stage all the time fu[ll]

Organization of a Grant Club

A large number of the citizens of Salem turned out Wednesday night for the purpose of organizing a Grant and Wilson Club. At eight o'clock Reed's Opera House was filled from floor to gallery with people and scarcely an inch of standing room was left unoccupied. Mr Mallory the Speaker of the House, was called to the Chair as President of the Club and in a brief speech thanked the audience for the honor they conferred upon him. He would not make a long speech as several speakers were to follow him. He thought there was need of a Republican organization although there was no Democratic party—to any great extent [Laughter]. Some might like crow as for himself he did not. Was glad to know that a great many Democrats preferred other diet [Laughter.] He should come out squarely in favor of the re-election of Grant. He wished to separate the sheep from the goats and would say to the latter "Depart ye workers of iniquity etc." [Laughter and cheers.]

Hon H W Corbett was then called upon by the Chair and amid a storm of applause came forward and spoke as follows:

Ladies, gentlemen and members of the Grant and Wilson Club of Marion County, honorable members of the Legislature and fellow citizens: I am pleased to be able and glad of the opportunity to address my fellow citizens of this county on this your first gathering for the consideration of the issues presented to the people in the approaching Presidential contest. Four years ago General Grant was elected President of these United States, having together with our many heroes of the war and under the blessing of Providence saved the Government and established the unity of the nation. It was a gratifying tribute tendered him by the whole people. The name of the party showed its objects: "the Union party."

At the beginning of the war patriotic men, gallant generals, soldiers and citizens both Republicans and Democrats came forward and pledged their lives their property and their honor for the maintenance of the Union. The struggle was a severe one, they did all that men could do. But success hung trembling in the balance until our new President advanced to the front and became indeed Captain of salvation to our bleeding country. His history since has proved him not only great in war but generous in peace. Many doubts were expressed during the campaign, when General Grant was a candidate for the position he now occupies, as to his ability as a statesman. Indeed it is said that one of our now dead statesmen remarked that General Grant could not rule the country. Neither he nor any other man could. Fellow-citizens no man rules or can rule this nation. The people and the people only, rule [Applause]. That General Grant has made some mistakes cannot be denied but to err is human, be that as it may, his administration as a whole has been a success. He as he promised at his inauguration has had no policy to enforce against the wishes of the people (here the Senator referred to the reduction of the National debt, completion of the Pacific Railroad, San Domingo question, the Geneva Arbitration &c.)

As to our other standard bearer Henry Wilson of Massachusetts he too has been a hero and a soldier in his way. No man has done more for us as a Republican party or fought more battles for the nation than he. Wherever the fight was the thickest, there was Henry Wilson, our candidate for, and the next Vice President of these United States. Then the Republican party has ever been true to the nation, and our present standard bearers have proven themselves worthy of the respect and support of that party [Applause]

But you ask, has our own State, has Oregon special reason as a State to remain true to that party and its standard bearers? No State in the Union, in proportion to its population, has been so favored as Oregon. [Here the Senator referred to the railroad grants and appropriations for public improvements, surveys, &c, at some length.]

He referred to Horace Greeley, and his wavering course at the beginning of the rebellion, and his destructive financial policy as enunciated by the Tribune, and showed the utter incompetency of such a man to assume the reins of government as chief executive of the nation.

"There are others to follow me," said the Senator, "and I am not a public speaker, nor a politician, but simply a business man and a Republican. The peculiar circumstances under which I was elected rendered my position a difficult one to fill and it was with diffidence that I assumed the duties of the office, but I undertook them, determined that if diligence and labor on my part could supply the place of the talent and ability of my competitors, those duties should be performed. I have labored night and day. What I have lacked in ability, I have striven to supply by industry. Not a day, may I say have I been absent from my seat in the Senate, except when necessarily so from sickness. I have striven to represent all. I have worked hard for Oregon. In matters of business, for Republican and Democrat I have labored alike, in such matters I am bound by no man, no party, no clique. If you wish a man in the Senate of the United States from Oregon to represent one man against the interests of the people of the State do not return me, for while I shall ever be a consistent and true Republican striving for the perpetuity of the party and a coworker to the best of my ability for its triumphant success in every quarter while in the Senate of the United States I shall to the best of my ability represent the citizens of Oregon, I shall work for the best interests of all."

Here the Senator referred to the charges that had been made against him as favoring the interests of the Northern Pacific Railroad, as against the interests of the Wallamet Valley Railroads, refuting the same and claimed that upon the completion of the N P R R depended to some extent the financial interests of this State.

I have been charged with being partial to Portland. I may have been selfish in my labors for her but I have ever endeavored not to be unjust to any portion of the State. Portland is my home. I came to her twenty-one years ago—a poor boy. She has ever been kind to me. I have grown with her growth. I have strengthened with her strength. If I love her too much it is my fault but I hope you will pardon it as a generous one. [Applause.]

Senator Corbett was followed by Hon John H Mitchell who made a most able and eloquent speech.

It is a proud thing, he said to be an American citizen. It is a proud thing to be a member of the Republican party. In our country majorities rule, and majorities are generally right. General Grant well understood that fact when four years ago on assuming the duties of that office which he has so well and ably filled, he enunciated that famous statement which proved him at once a statesman and a patriot: "I have no policy to enforce against the wishes of the people." It is scarcely necessary for me to say that I together with you and all well wishers of our Government and the Republican party hope to see the Republican party succeed and Grant and Wilson our standard bearers and representatives elected President and Vice President of these United States. And fellow citizens they will be.

I have faith in the people of the United States. I have faith that those that went down to do battle for the right will still stand by it and that Grant and Wilson in November next will sweep the nation as they have New Hampshire as they have Oregon as they have North Carolina as they have Vermont and last though not least as they have Maine.

When fellow citizens I remember the record of the Democratic party when I remember the desolated landscapes and the barren fields when I remember the blood that has been spilt, when I remember the widows' tears and the orphans' cries that have been caused by the policy of that party I am surprised to think that any man who loves his country can hesitate to stand by the Republican party or fail to assist that party in the fast approaching victory.

Ladies and gentlemen there are many to follow me and I would not further occupy your time but bear with me for a time while we briefly review the history of that party. [Here the speaker reviewed the history of the Democratic party briefly showing its errors and proving that the civil war with all its attending horrors was the legitimate consequence of the ruinous policy of that party. He referred also to Greeley and his many mistakes, and that he was responsible for the long continuance of the war and eloquently appealed to the people to stand by the party that saved the country. The speaker was loudly applauded several times.]

Mr Mitchell was followed by Messrs. Gazley and Meacham candidates for Electors and by Hon John F Caples all of whom made able and effective speeches.

About 200 persons enrolled their names as members of the club.

FROM THE CAPITAL

(FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT)

SALEM Ogn, September 12 1872

The picker up of inconsiderable trifles may find an item occasionally to interest your readers but unless one had the fertile imagination of N— of the Herald it would be very hard to get up much of a sensation out of the proceedings of the past twenty four hours. That is to say the proceedings that are matters of record in the Legislature do not make a very big showing but I may say that the various proceedings of the third house admit of any number of constructions and certainly many of the rumors with which the air is thick are sensational enough for the most morbid appetite.

THE CLACKAMAS CONTEST

The business of the House to-day consisted of a motion to reconsider the vote referring the Clackamas county contest to a special committee which was passed yesterday. The motion to reconsider was supported by Caples and others and was opposed by Onstein, Baker and others. This contest is one of considerable interest, as it involves the construction of the law passed by the last Legislature providing that persons employed in public works should neither gain nor lose a residence thereby. It appears that some sixty odd votes cast for Democratic candidates were rejected under this Democratic law because the men were employed on the Locks and Canal near Oregon City. The contestants claim these votes should be counted for them and the sitting members dispute that point. The contest will be lively, but to the honor of the Republican majority be it said, there is no disposition to try the case on party grounds or any other than the question of law and justice. If the Democrats are entitled to seats the Republican majority will admit them without a murmur.

THE LOCK GAME

The Senate met at 11 o'clock this forenoon and took a ballot on the Chief Clerkship. The vote stood 11 for Simpson to 11 for Adams. Mr Baldwin offered a resolution that the Senate ballot once at a quarter past ten A. M., and once at a quarter past two P M of each day for Chief Clerk, until one be elected. Brown, of Marion thought another ballot might result in an election but the resolution was adopted and the Senate adjourned to meet at 2 P M. The general impression is that at that time Simpson will be elected. It is evident that the Republicans must yield. The Democracy has nothing to lose by a failure to organize, while the Republicans were elected for the purpose of passing certain much needed laws and repealing the obnoxious acts of the last Legislature. If the Democracy can defeat this by forty day's balloting on the clerkship, it will be a substantial victory for them.

MISCELLANEOUS

The third house organized without difficulty and is active night and day. The various parties are daily receiving recruits and already there are enough members on hand to eat up the entire membership of the Senate and House with their officers, candidates and all.

The Statesman of to-day, has some very bitter articles on the Senatorial question which are pretty generally attributed here to the pen of the retiring editor of the OREGONIAN.

Supreme Court gets along very slowly. The business of that body increases yearly, and it is thought that an adjourned session will be necessary to clear the docket.

The Grant and Wilson meeting was largely attended, but it was too evidently affected by the Senatorial 'boss trot' now going on to be of much weight in the Presidential campaign.

The Chemeketa Hotel is opening slowly—like the leaves of the oak. Let us hope that it may prove as lasting when it is fully developed. A good many rooms have been fitted up and are all taken as soon as ready to be occupied.

Lovers of amusement are anxiously looking to the advent of the Waldron Troupe, which will relieve the monotony of constant political discussion.

OREGON

The new Court House at Hillsboro is nearly finished.

The lobby of both branches of the Legislature is well attended.

Corvallis still continues to clamor loudly for the State University.

The City Fathers of Harrisburg lately levied a tax of five mills, and the town talked the matter over for two weeks. Then the conversation was changed.

The meeting of the Spiritualists at Woodburn Station commenced Thursday and will be continued until Sunday evening. It is expected that there will be a large attendance.

From all we can learn the coming State Fair will be the most numerously attended as well as the most extensive exhibition of the kind ever held in Oregon. No pains have been spared by the managers to make it a grand success.

The Conference Missionary Anniversary was held at the University chapel Salem on Saturday evening, August 31st 1872 Rev H Caldwell presiding. The Treasurer's report was read by Rev J W Miller, showing the collections by districts to be as follows: Portland district $615 40; Salem $218 [illegible]; Eugene City $203 [illegible]; Umpqua $33 37; Puget Sound $14 05; Walla Walla $130 [illegible]; Total this year $1 [illegible] 04; Total last year $1 134 24.

The Olympia Courier has the following: Hallett has met with a difficulty at the Olequa where he attempted to drive piles and had to give it up on account of striking bed rock. He then tried by shoeing the piles to effect his object but again failed. He intends to use cribs now which will do about as well but will take more time and labor. It is thought that this obstruction will not prevent the completion of the road by the 1st of October. A similar difficulty is reported on Montgomery's contract.

A prisoner in the jail at Silver City Idaho committed suicide on the night of the 4th inst. His name was Charles O Donnell alias Thomas McNamara. He had been indicted for manslaughter and imprisoned but afterward was released on bail when he immediately acted so as to excite the fears of his bondsmen and they had him re-arrested put into jail, and the next afternoon he blew his brains out with a pistol which he had smuggled into the prison. He was an Irishman about 25 years of age.

At the last session of Congress an act was passed and is now a law: That in any of the Territories, whenever a vacancy shall happen from resignation or death during the recess of the legislative council in any office which under the organic act of said Territory is to be filled by appointment of the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the council the Governor shall fill up such vacancy by granting a commission which shall expire at the end of the next session of said Legislative council.

The farmers of Pierce county W T have now finished their harvesting. The hay crop is generally light. Oats and wheat are better. Owing to the light crop of timothy many of the farmers are resorting to oats for hay.

OREGON LEGISLATURE

Seventh Biennial Session

Senate

MORNING SESSION

The Senate met at 11 [illegible] M [illegible] at by [illegible] call [illegible] sixty [illegible] or Chief Clerk [illegible] roll was [illegible] Adams 11 Simpson 11.

Mr Baldwin [illegible] was adopted [illegible] ten A M and [illegible] past [illegible] P M [illegible] day for Chief Clerk [illegible] Senate adjourned [illegible] M.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment at [illegible] P M. The [illegible] was called and [illegible] [illegible] Sergeant at Arms was [illegible] Simpson [illegible] [illegible] The Senate adjourned [illegible] 11 A M to-morrow.

House

MORNING SESSION

The Speaker took the Chair [illegible] Rev Mr Wa[illegible] of Salem [illegible] prayer.

Mr LaDow presented a petition [illegible] Messrs M[illegible] [illegible] and R[illegible] [illegible] seats. The petitioners stated that on the 3[illegible] [illegible] they were candidates for the representatives [illegible] county and received [illegible] majority of the legal votes but that certificates [illegible] were given to Messrs Barth Crawford and Matlock now the sitting members. The petitioners therefore represent that they gave due notice to the said sitting members that their right to hold said seats would be contested and stated that since then they had taken such testimony as in their opinion would fully establish their right to the seats. This being the case [illegible] asked that the testimony taken by them be referred to such committee as the House might direct.

Mr LaDow moved that the petition together with the documents therein [illegible] be referred to a special committee of five members to be appointed by the Speaker and that they proceed to the discharge of their duties with as little delay as possible.

The motion was recorded and on being put to the House was carried, after a pause.

Mr Simpson moved a reconsideration of the vote and Mr G[illegible] recommended the proposition.

Mr Simpson said that as the House would in ordinary course appoint a Committee on Elections, before which the Clackamas dispute would come and be decided without difficulty there was no necessity for a special committee. To appoint such a committee would be to take things out of their usual course and the matter was one with regard to which there could be no danger in delay while nothing could be gained by hurry.

Mr Hodgkins thought it was due to the House to the claimants to the people of Clackamas county and to the whole State that the matter should be investigated as soon as possible. He saw no difficulty in the way. There was at the present time no other business of moment before the House and he submitted that the question was one of sufficient magnitude to justify its being referred to a special committee.

Mr Caples said the matter would in regular course come before the committee to be appointed on Elections and it would be unfair to the rest of the State except Clackamas county and unfair in the abstract to Clackamas county itself to entail the expense of a doubtful investigation. The petition indicated that testimony had been taken on the one side and it was clear that testimony would have to be taken on the other. He proposed that the petition lie on the table and subsequently he altered his resolution on the suggestion of Mr Simpson to the effect that the proposition to reconsider the vote be postponed until 3 o'clock. This resolution was carried, and the House after a sitting of about forty minutes adjourned until half past one.

AFTERNOON SESSION

On the House resuming at half past one Mr Simpson proposed that the reconsideration of the vote on the Clackamas county question be taken at once instead of at three o'clock. The resolution was seconded and adopted.

The vote having been reconsidered the question before the House came to be the proposition to appoint a select committee of five to investigate the seats for Clackamas county.

Mr Gingles moved an amendment to the effect that the words standing committee of five be struck out and there be inserted instead the words standing committee on elections when the same shall have been announced by the Chair.

The amendment was carried.

Mr Speaker said that in [illegible] as the Senate had not been organized and as he was somewhat of a stranger to the duties of the position to which he had been elected, he had taken more time to prepare a list of committees than would otherwise have been the case he would now however give notice that to-morrow morning the Standing Committees of the House would be announced.

The House after a sitting of about five minutes adjourned until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

LETTER FROM JUNIUS

PORTLAND, September 12 1872

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

As a Republican who holds the honor of the party at heart and rejoices in its triumphs because they advance truth and justice, and insure the prosperity of the Nation. I ask a small space in your columns to call attention to certain views lately urged by you which seem to me to be indefensible upon Republican principles.

For some time past I have noticed articles in the OREGONIAN urging a settlement of the Senatorial question in the Legislature by a caucus of the Republican members, and asserting that that is the only mode of settlement consistent with Republican usage. Your articles carry the impression that caucuses have always been the rule of our party. I would remind you that the Republican party has not sent a single Senator from Oregon since the admission of the State whose nomination was the result of the caucus system as you advocate it. The election of Baker and Nesmith was the result of a coalition and not of a party caucus. When Harding was chosen to fill Col Baker's unexpired term, there was no caucus but the election was the result of long continued balloting in the Joint Convention. There was no caucus in 1864 when Senator Williams was elected. At that time there were two Republican aspirants, Williams and Pearne and the contest between them was decided in Joint Convention without a caucus. In 1866 there was another election of Senator. There were two Republican candidates in the field namely Gibbs and Mitchell. A caucus was held and nominated Mr Gibbs. This result so disappointed some of the members who had participated in caucuses that they refused to support the caucus nominee. After a struggle which threatened the very existence of the party Mr Gibbs was abandoned the Republican members agreeing unanimously, I believe to support Mr Corbett. If as you charge the contest for the election of Senator at that time was the commencement of the decline of the Republican party in Oregon this ought to be regarded as a warning against the caucus system, or at least as an argument against it. A plan that produced a disastrous failure the only time it has been adopted by the Republican party in this State could scarcely be considered the best plan unless there are special circumstances to recommend it now which did not exist then and you have not suggested that any such special circumstances do exist.

In 1870 the Democrats being in the majority that party adopted the caucus system, and Senator Kelly was chosen. As illustrating the beauty and purity of the caucus system I refer you to the charges of corruption and bribery so frequently made in the columns of the OREGONIAN in reference to that caucus. I do not see that precedent either Republican or Democratic can afford you much consolation in your zeal for the caucus plan but I am not disposed to denounce the plan as necessarily corrupt nor do I justify any person in going into caucus any refusing to abide by its nominations but deny that it is right for any member of a representative body, under any ordinary circumstances to enter into any agreement whether by caucus or otherwise by which he may be bound to disregard the well known wishes of his constituents. And further I deny that politicians have any right to establish rules of action which ignore and override this principle. Is it true that persons in their representative capacity have no moral obligations to their constituencies, and are they thus absolved from all moral responsibility? If this you are right if not you are wrong. I have witnessed the manner in which primaries and elections in the cities and centers of population even here in Oregon are sometimes conducted and I know something therefore of the extent to which persons chosen at such elections may be supposed to represent the intelligent illustrious people of their respective [illegible].

If we are to be bound hand and foot by political corruption and to surrender all political rights into the hands of political rings and live only to minister to the ambition and vanity of those who aggrandize themselves at our expense then let us by all means resolve to settle all our political questions by caucus if not—not.

The Daily Oregon[illegible]

FRIDAY MORNING SEPT 1[illegible]

CITY.

[illegible] —Mr Gideon Tibbetts [illegible] Portland yesterday showed us a potato [illegible] his farm which is affected with the potato [illegible] rot was that all the potato crop [illegible] a similar manner. When the potato [illegible] [illegible] the cases present the appea[illegible] having been in steds. The sample before [illegible] cut open shows that the germ of the di[illegible] commenced in a core extending through the [illegible] of the potato from which the disease ex[illegible] the vegetable [illegible] until the potato w[illegible] presents a blackened appearance. We un[illegible] that the disease has made its appearance [illegible] portion of this country and also to some [illegible] Clatsop county. We believe that the [illegible] has ever yet been discovered for the [illegible] and suppose that our farmers who are e[illegible] to have their potato crop thu[illegible] will have to grin and bear it.

SURVEY COMPLETED.—Mr S O L Po[illegible] went down to the mouth of the Colum[illegible] week to make the annual survey there [illegible] few days ago after having complet[illegible] necessary work. Two material change[illegible] curred at the mouth since the last survey [illegible] 500 feet has been washed away at Point [illegible] and 400 feet of Sand Island has drifted [illegible] the north channel. This island is [illegible] changing in a northward direction. [illegible] the main body has shifted around by the [illegible] of the wind and tide nearly 1,000 feet. [illegible] signal placed that year in the cen[illegible] Island by the United States Coast [illegible] now within 200 feet of the water's edge.

BAWDY HOUSES.—The Advocate has [illegible] ing remarks in reference to the number [illegible] crease of bawdy houses in this city: [illegible] is fast becoming notorious for the num[illegible] public city of its houses of ill-fame. [illegible] great utter astonishment that an evil of [illegible] magnitude should be permitted to grow up [illegible] scattering its death and poison from [illegible] heart of the city. If indeed there be no [illegible] curing the city from such a disease and [illegible] injury it is to be hoped that from some [illegible] there shall issue right speedily a deman[illegible] shall be heard asking that the public [illegible] evil shall at least be abated."

PAPERS IN THE LEGISLATURE.—O[illegible] contemporary has mentioned for the [illegible] that a greater number of Bulletins wer[illegible] the members of the Legislature than [illegible] copies of the OREGONIAN. If the Bull[illegible] rect in stating the number of [illegible] the members, then instead of sending [illegible] than this office, it is two less [illegible] at Arms has ordered and we are now sen[illegible] to the members of the House thirty cop[illegible] paper. It is a small [illegible] but it is [illegible] is to lug the truth, even about trifles.

BOOK DEPOSITORY.—The latest Gen[illegible] ference of the M E Church, provided [illegible] the establishment of a Book Depository [illegible] land, Oregon. The Disciples of the [illegible] changed so as to conform to the [illegible] As no time was fixed upon for commencing [illegible] Depository, the Agents at New York, to [illegible] General Conference committed the [illegible] this purpose, have, after looking the [illegible] over, concluded not to establish the [illegible] immediately. It will no doubt be [illegible] the course of the next year.

CAMPED.—All the Chinamen who [illegible] discharged along the line of the Northe[illegible] Railroad, amounting in all to several [illegible] are now encamped on the east side of [illegible] near where the Oregon and Californ[illegible] trestle work crosses the flat. Their [illegible] tenements, now smoked and stained [illegible] picture, can be seen to stretch along [illegible] hundred yards. Of their future movemen[illegible] apprised.

GONE FORWARD.—One hundred Chi[illegible] be employed upon the work of grad[illegible] vating upon the west side road, were [illegible] from Wednesday in charge of [illegible] termen to be at work [illegible] road. The track is now [illegible] Lake, which is the most [illegible] laying on the road, and which has [illegible] siderable time and [illegible].

HORSES.—Sixty five head of [illegible] brought up yesterday on the Jane [illegible] a me point along the North[illegible] Pacif[illegible]. These horses belong to J B Montgom[illegible] the principal contractors on the [illegible] heaviest part of the work has been [illegible] till next spring these animals will be [illegible] ranch beyond the Dalles and kept [illegible] sumption of work next year.

DISCHARGED.—Captain Patten of [illegible] Edward James, who was arrested [illegible] charged with a violation of the U[illegible] laws, in carrying more pas[illegible] Kong to this port than the capacity of [illegible] would admit, was discharged from [illegible] Wednesday by the U S Commissi[illegible] whom he was examined, and the [illegible] raised.

THROWN OUT.—A few evenings [illegible] Loryea was driving this gentle [illegible] one of the spindles of the fore [illegible] suddenly. The wheel rolled off, and [illegible] to the ground, throwing both the dri[illegible] Loryea out. Fortunately, [illegible] beyond a few scratches and a [illegible].

EDITH O'GORMAN.—A correspond[illegible] the Advocate states that Miss Edith [illegible] the Escaped Nun," is now on the [illegible] for this State from California, she [illegible] lecturing for some months [illegible] man will visit Portland [illegible] the principal towns in Oregon and [illegible].

GRAIN COMING.—The new crop of [illegible] ginning to come in quite rapidly. [illegible] Tuesday and Wednesday, 18 car[illegible] were received at the east side wharf [illegible] transferred to the bark Manila, now [illegible] grain for Liverpool.

PLANS FORWARDED.—The plans, [illegible] and accompanying ordinance of [illegible] bridge across the river at this place, [illegible] placed in a proper condition to trans[illegible] will be forwarded to the Se[illegible] Washington for his approval, [illegible] steamer.

FALSE ALARM.—A false alarm w[illegible] Wednesday night about 12 o'clock [illegible] companies were out with consider[illegible] but after parading up and down [illegible] some time and not finding any fi[illegible] firemen dispersed and left the city t[illegible] slumber.

FINE FRUIT.—Mr John Batchel[illegible] has placed on our table a fine pear [illegible] variety picked from a tree in [illegible] pear is as fine a specimen as we ha[illegible] a delicious fruit. The pear we[illegible] half pounds and has an excellent [illegible].

MATERIALS.—Iron in considerab[illegible] going to the front on the west side [illegible] day enough iron was carried forw[illegible] track for a mile. The demand fo[illegible] great that the mills are kept run[illegible] and night to supply the orders.

REDUCE RATE.—The Railroad [illegible] the members of Willamette Engi[illegible] and their invited guests with the [illegible] and return, at reduced rates. The[illegible] $4 50 each way but they were [illegible] tickets for the round trip at $4.

FRIDAY MORNING SEPT 1 18

POTATO ROT —Mr Gideon Tibbetts of East Portland yesterday showed us a potato grown on his farm which is affected with the potato rot and informs us that a [illegible] of his potato crop is affected in a similar manner When the potato is affected with the rot the vines present the appearance of having been frosted. The sample before us when cut in two shows that the germ of the disease is contained in a c e o extending through the center of the potato from which the disease extends as of the vegetable matures until the potato when cut presents a blackened appearance We understand that the disease has made its appearance in other portions of this country and also to some extent in Clatsop county We believe that no prevention has ever yet been discovered for the disease and suppose that our farmers who are so unfortunate as to have their potato crop thus affected will have to ' grin and bear it ''

SURVEY COMPLETED —Mr S O L Potter, who went down to the mouth of the Columbia last week to make the annual survey there returned a few days since, after having completed all the necessary work Two material changes have occurred at the mouth since the last survey About 330 feet has been washed away at Point Adams and 400 feet of Sand Island has drifted off toward the north channel This island is constantly changing in a northward direction Since 1865 the main body has shifted around by the agency of the wind and tide nearly 1,000 feet A stone signal placed that year in the center of the Island by the United States Coast Engineer, is now within 300 feet of the water's edge

BAWDY HOUSES —The Advocate has the following remarks in reference to the number and increase of bawdy houses in this city Portland is fast becoming notorious for the number and publicity of its houses of ill fame Strangers express utter astonishment that an evil of such magnitude should be permitted to grow up and flourish, scattering its death and poison from the very heart of the city If indeed there be no law from rescuing the city from such dishonor and ultimate injury, it is to be hoped that from some quarter there shall issue right speedily a demand that shall be heard, asking that the publicity of this evil shall at least be abated ''

PAPERS IN THE LEGISLATURE —Our evening cotemporary has mentioned for the third time that a greater number of Bulletins were taken by the members of the Legislature than there were copies of the OREGONIAN If the Bulletin is correct in stating the number of papers it sends to the [illegible] here, then instead of sending one more than this office, it sends two less The Sergeant-at-Arms has ordered and we are now sending daily to the members of the House thirty copies of this paper. It is a small affair, but there is no harm in telling the truth, even about trifles

BOOK DEPOSITORY —The recent General Conference of the M E. Church, provided by law for the establishment of a Book Depository at Portland, Oregon The Discipline of the church was changed so as to conform to the facts in the case As no time was fixed upon for commencing this Depository, the Agents at New York, to whom the General Conference committed the execution of its purposes, have, after looking the ground all over, concluded not to establish the Depository immediately It will no doubt be established in the course of the next year.

CAMPED —All the Chinamen who have been discharged along the line of the Northern Pacific Railroad, amounting in all to several hundred, are now encamped on the east side of the river, near where the Oregon and California Railroad trestle work crosses the flat. Their frail canvas tenements, now smoked and stained by long exposure, can be seen to stretch along for several hundred yards. Of their future movements we are apprised.

GONE FORWARD —One hundred Chinamen, to be employed upon the work of grading and excavating upon the west side road, were sent to the front Wednesday in charge of foremen and quartermen, to begin at work immediately upon the road. The track is now being laid across Wapato Lake, which is the most difficult piece of track-laying on the road, and which has required considerable time and delay in building.

HORSES —Seventy five head of horses were brought up yesterday on the Jane McNear from some point along the Northern Pacific Railroad. The horses belong to J B Montgomery, one of the principal contractors on the road. As the first part of the work has been suspended until next spring these animals will be taken to a ranch beyond the Dalles and kept until the resumption of work next year

DISCHARGED —Captain Patterson, of the bark Edward James, who was arrested some time ago, charged with a violation of the United States laws, in carrying more passengers from Hong Kong to this port than the capacity of the vessel would admit, was discharged from custody on Wednesday by the U S Commissioner, before whom he was examined, and the bonds exonerated

THROWN OUT —A few evenings ago, as Mrs Loryea was driving through this city quite rapidly, one of the spindles of the fore axle gave way suddenly The wheel rolled off, and the end came to the ground, throwing both the driver and Mrs Loryea out. Fortunately, neither were injured beyond a few scratches and a momentary fright

EDITH O'GORMAN —A correspondent writing to the Advocate states that Miss Edith O'Gorman, the "Escaped Nun," is now on the eve of starting for this State from California, where she has been lecturing for some months Miss O Gorman will visit Portland, Salem, Albany, and all the principal towns in Oregon and lecture.

GRAIN COMING —The new crop of grain is beginning to come in quite rapidly. During last Tuesday and Wednesday, 18 car loads of wheat were received at the east side wharf, and speedily transferred to the bark Manila, now loading with [illegible] for Liverpool

PLANS FORWARDED —The plans, specifications and accompanying ordinance of the proposed bridge across the river at this place, have all been put in a proper condition to transmit East, and will be forwarded to the Secretary of War at Washington for his approval, by the next steamer.

FALSE ALARM —A false alarm was sounded on Wednesday night about 12 o clock All the fire companies were out with considerable alacrity, but after parading up and down the streets for some time, and not finding any fire to fight the [illegible] dispersed and left the city to quietude and slumber.

FINE FRUIT —Mr John Ritchey, of this city, has placed on our table a fine pear of the Bartlett variety, picked from a tree in his yard This pear is as fine a specimen as we have yet seen of this delicious fruit The pear weighs one and a half pounds and has an excellent rich flavor

MATERIALS —Iron in considerable quantities is going to the front on the west side road Yesterday enough iron was carried forward to lay the track for a mile The demand for lumber is so great that the mills are kept running both day and night to supply the orders

EXCURSION RATE.—The Railroad Co furnished the members of Willamette Engine Co No 1, and their invited guests, with tickets to Albany and return, at reduced rates The regular fare is $4 each way, but they were supplied with tickets for the round trip at $4.

SCALDED —A little son of Dr Henderson, of St. Helens, was very badly scalded on Wednesday morning by the upsetting of a cup of hot tea. At latest accounts the boy's condition was a little more favorable and strong hopes are entertained of his recovery

OBLIGATIONS EXPRESSED —The friends of the late Michael McManus who died suddenly last Monday evening, desire to express their sincere obligations for the liberal donations from numerous citizens to assist in defraying the necessary funeral expenses

STEAMER BOILERS —The steamer boilers, long used on the Annie Stewart, were hoisted out of that boat yesterday The boilers will be taken down to Rainier to day and will be used in the new sawmill belonging to Dean Blanchard there

NEW POEM —The Era is now publishing a serial poem, from the pen of the ' Poet Laborer ' Mr Stephen Maybell, entitled Blarney, or How to Pay the Rent ' The last number of the paper contains Book First ''

TENDERED —We understand that Gen O F Bell of the State Militia Second Brigade has tendered his resignation to the Governor some time since but as yet no action has been taken by that official

AT THE MOUTH —The dredger is now engaged at work at the mouth of the Wallamet in clearing out obstructions In a few days this craft will return to Swan Island and resume operations at that point

HEAD WIND —Strong head winds were encountered by the steamer O [illegible] on her last passage to this port from San Francisco Considering this fact very good time was made between ports

APPOINTED —The County Court yesterday in the matter of the estate of Bridget Keernan, deceased, appointed James Keernan as administrator

ARM HURT —William McMillan a small boy while climbing up into an apple tree yesterday fell and broke one of his arms

The New Northwest says there are some fields of wheat still standing in French Prairie In the hills the harvest is about over

WILL RETURN —The firemen who went to Albany yesterday morning from this city will return on the evening train

NEW POSTOFFICE —Ott is the name of a new Postoffice in Coos county—Ott (odd) name surely

AMUSEMENTS.

The "Hidden Hand'' will be produced this evening at Oro Fino Theater. A matinee will be given to morrow at 2 o'clock.

The "Lion of St. Marc'' was produced last evening at Oro Fino Theater A large and fashionable audience attended The play was rendered in excellent style and met with frequent and hearty applause

CANNOT BE EXCELLED —There has been a decided change in personnel of the photographic establishment of Joseph Buchtel, by the presence of Mr E H Stolte as a partner with Mr Buchtel Mr Carl Bosco the famous artist continues to transfer physiognomies to plate in a manner that meets with general approval Messrs Buchtel & Stolte have on exhibition daily at the entrance to the Gallery, Corbett's Building, First street, between Washington and Alder, the finest display of work in their particular line ever produced in the State and in the East it would be difficult to find anything to excel it The firm and those connected with it need no words of praise The work they produce is the best endorsement any gallery could have

Avoid the Perils of the Season

Autumn, although the most radiant portion of the American year has its drawbacks. The heavy evening dews and morning vapors, and the great disparity in temperature between the night and day, give rise to many painful disturbances of the bowels, such as colic, cholera morbus, diarrhœa and dysentery The digestive organs are also unfavorably affected by the change of season and dyspeptics generally suffer most severely during the fall Derangements of the liver are likewise common and miasmatic fevers prevail in newly-settled districts and low lying and marshy localities These unpleasant contingencies of the season are not, however, unavoidable By strengthening, toning and regulating the system with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters even the most delicate may escape them At the expiration of summer all the bodily powers are in a somewhat exhausted state They require the wholesome stimulation which this genial vegetable invigorant supplies Under its renovating influence the nervous energy which the wilting heat of July and August had kept in abeyance or partially extinguished crops out afresh; the flaccid muscles recover their elasticity the appetite takes a sharper edge the processes of digestion and assimilation become more rapid and perfect, the spirits rise and the whole organization acquires its maximum of activity and resistant power Even persons of comparatively feeble constitutions when thus fortified against the perils of the season, will have little cause to fear a visitation from any of the disorders to which we have referred. As a protection against miasmatic fevers and all epidemics engendered by malaria, Hostetter s Bitters may be justly pronounced not only unrivaled but unapproached. Look well to the label and trade mark, as there are many counterfeits and imitations in the market

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates tropical, temperate or frigid it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits

Straws

The Fat Contributor is on his travels according to the Times and Chronicle waking up snakes generally an l

TAKIN THE VOTES OF THE PASSENGERS

I took the steamer General Lytle of the Mail Line for Louisville the other evening and had a delightful trip After tea I thought I would

TAKE A VOTE OF THE PASSENGERS

This is the period for taking votes on board railroad trains steamboats etc on the Presidential question The result is frequently published in the newspapers as "A Straw" though I have observed that no newspaper ever prints a straw that does not show the political wind to be setting in their direction When I essayed to take a vote of the passengers of the General Lytle the other night Lytle did I think of the embarrassments I would encounter in securing it I am not much in politics though I am probably as much in politics as politics is in me

ONE VOTE FOR PIERCE

I began with the Captain of the Lytle as a starter

Captain Whitten said I, who is your choice for President?

Well replied the bold commander thoughtfully 'Captain Pearce has been as good a President as the old Mail Line ever had Reckon he'll do for some years yet.

He thought I was talking about the Presidency of the Louisville Mail Line, but I put down one vote for Pierce

THE MATE "GOES" FOR ME

I next tackled the mate who was below superintending some perplexing manoeuver in freight.

"Mate," said I cheerily trying to get out of the way of his men and getting in their way worse than ever as a matter of course "who are you going for?

"Who am I going for? roared the mate angrily 'I m going for you if you don t get out of this"

I got out immediately I had to do it or become his mate

FAVORING HORACE

I ascend to the cabin A scholarly looking man was reading by a table (He was reading by a lamp, more properly, yet he was by a table too)

'My friend, I remarked blandly, as I produced note-book and pencil, ' do you favor Horace ? ' (He did favor him a little in his feet)

"That is a fair question,' said the scholarly-looking man, laying down his book, which I perceived was a Latin work of some kind, "and I will answer it without undue circumlocution While many of the odes of Horace are unexcelled either in his own or any other language, yet his verses lack the heroic ring which a poetic lyre gives forth when a Virgil sweeps the strings.'

I told him that Virgil might sweep the strings, but could he sweep the South ? That was the question

"Your language, my friend, ' continued I ' satisfies me that you are in reality a Greeley man '

"How so ? ' inquired the man of letters ' You call Virgil a poetic lyre '

Down went the scholarly man for Horace

A MAN OF LETTERS

I am a man of letters, as this letter will show If she shows anything else why letter !

It may not be generally known by the way that letters were invented in Phoenicia but they were That is the reason you can t Phoenicia education without them [See, it ? I'm ish ye, eh ? How's that ? Ha !]

ANYBODY TO BEAT GRANT

While I was gathering up my straws two men somewhat intoxicated, got very much excited in discussing the relative fitness of Grant and Greeley for the Presidency While one [illegible] sted that Grant knew nothing whatever about farming, the other inquired contemptuously "What Greeley knew 'bout war? He never fired (hic) two-hors-lumber gun! " He s[illegible]ed to think that settled it.

"My friends," said I, "let us have peace Why this strife, this contention, this bitterness of spirit? And all, as Shakespeare says, for Hecuba What is Hecuba to you, or you to Hecub ?"

'Oh, (hic) you be d—d," said the man of gin. "Anything to beat Grant "

HOW THE LADIES GO.

My next experiment was among the ladies, I [illegible] a dark-eyed daughter of Kentucky, and in a fatherly and motherly way, which the difference in our years warranted ' Baughty, if you could be Grant or be Greeley, [illegible] had you rather be?"

'B Gratz Brown!" she replied, with a [illegible] toss of the head

" There is [illegible] thing I admire in these Kentucky [illegible] they never go back on a native Kentuckian.

"I am for [illegible]," cried an angular old maid in a shrill voice "Adams is my man ' The [illegible] thought [illegible]tainly to favor the Adams movement, since Mother Eve was the original A[illegible]

HE WOULDN'T SUPPORT RELATIONS

"I support Grant," put in a brawny Hoosier fa[illegible], "and the country will support him too."

"Well," [illegible] a sinister chap, "the [illegible] may support Grant, but you can t expect the country to support all of Grant s relations into the bargain, can you? This [illegible] is played out."

I afterwards [illegible] that the sinister [illegible] recently run away from a wife and six [illegible] in the East He don't believe in taking care of relations, he don't

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

Wheat in Liverpool 12s 10@13d an advance of 3d.

The bark Almatier sailed to-day from San Francisco for Portland, with a large miscellaneous cargo

The [illegible] Ajax will sail from San Francisco for this port [illegible] with freight and passengers

The bark [illegible] is receiving a cargo of Wheat for Liverpool, at the Eastside wharf

Both the [illegible] and Electra have completed [illegible]

The [illegible] Oriflamme, which arrived at this port last evening from San Francisco brought 625 tons of assorted [illegible]

The brig Pathfinder is now at Astoria ready to sail for Honolulu. She will probably proceed to sea to-morrow

The [illegible] is receiving a cargo of lumber for Hong kong, and is advertised to sail on the 2d October

The bark [illegible] after having completed discharging her cargo, was towed across the river to-day by the Vancouver to the Eastside wharf, where she will load with Wheat

The total amount of treasure shipped from San Francisco since January 1st 1872, to September 5 is $24 366 514 54, being an increase over the amount sent away during the corresponding period in 1871 of $11,494 782 61 This is exclusive of the amounts sent through the United States mail. The large increase over previous years indicated above readily accounts for the closeness of our money market during the past summer There appears no good [illegible] at present to hope for a less stringent condition of financial matters for a while to come, and all the available capital in our State will be required to move the abundant products which are now or soon will be placed in the market

The general impression on this coast at present seems to be that the scarcity of sail craft will be sorely felt. As remarked by an exchange, while some of our wealthy farmers show a disposition to hold their Wheat till next spring, there are others quite willing to sell and thus [illegible] expenses and make sure of a living profit, without taking any risks of the future. The same difficulty under which we labor for lack of ship tonnage to carry our Grain to market is now being realized at the East and South for the movement of their crops—Cotton, Corn Wheat, etc Freights are high and first class ships scarce, in all waters And while American ship-building has measurably ceased for years past, the demands of the world s commerce have greatly increased even far beyond the increase of steam tonnage Our Grain interest is crippled Coal and Lumber remain unmarketed while our Wool and other home products are taxed with heavy freight burdens Some of our people are disposed to charge all these inflictions upon a few men or rings, who are called monopolizers whereas the very opposite is the truth Had it not been for their farsightedness, we would to-day be infinitely worse off than we are, and still more helpless and dependent during the fall and winter months

The editor of the California Farmer whose observations have been thorough and extensive, makes the following sensible remark, and although referring more particularly to California will in some respects apply to a great extent to our own State He says

Abundance is written everywhere Bread is the staff of life and California furnishes bread for the millions [illegible] ships that will come to our port and pay them a good freight rate too Let them come the more the better If the freight is to be reduced the farmer will get more for his [illegible] and our State more of the money There seems to be some difference of opinion relative to the total of our Grain crop [illegible] It may be difficult for any one to name exactly the total yet it will be far beyond the [illegible] The Grain will come [illegible] from every [illegible] as fast as railroads steamers barges and teams can bring it. We are not able at present to [illegible] enough to move the Grain now ready for market [illegible] A vast amount [illegible] is on the way to market now and [illegible] of this immense harvest that has drawn immense capital from the city to do this work and [illegible] this wheat will be changed into money [illegible] gold and move on [illegible] Till then business men must be very patient and indulgent to one another and to all they can to hasten the good time coming The late Wheat rise in Great Britain will quicken shipments and help to rush Wheat abroad as fast as ships can be had to carry it away The number of cargoes [illegible] now loading is far beyond anticipation yet with every effort made to clear the market [illegible] here and at all the landings and depots everywhere and crowds the railroad trains to their utmost capacity yet with every exertion made by our farmers the amount of Grain yet in the sheaf over our State is very large and the amount in the stack enormous

Our home market continues rather dull though the fall trade is beginning to set in and some of our merchants are making shipments to the interior The receipts of Wheat are large but are increasing, and though buyers do not seem anxious $1 40 ⅌ cental can be readily obtained for all that offers Neither millers nor exporters seem inclined to make an advance on these rates.

Flour is firm at the prices given during the past ten days A small shipment will be made by the outgoing steamer to San Francisco this week The receipts of Oats have been [illegible] with [illegible] $1 40 ⅌ 100 lbs as the ruling rate

Family market is well supplied with all kinds of seasonable vegetables which sell at moderate rates

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhoea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency, etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street corner of Commercial San Francisco where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON a physician who has made private diseases his special study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who in cities are publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs, confused vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances disposition to shun society, loss of memory hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co. a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union

All communications strictly [illegible]

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are [illegible] and became too lazy too work at their trades Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence-office keepers, etc The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates, pretended [illegible] letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat disease so that he [illegible] to cure.

Address DR. J F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post Office Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER
